Ms. Caitlin Fila is the Senior Manager of Client Engagement at iDiscovery Solutions, Inc. (iDS), headquartered in Washington, DC. In addition to managing the Project Management Office, she serves as lead Project Manager on key engagements.

As PMO Manager, she develops and refines workflows, coaches PMO team members, and liaises with other departments throughout the lifecycle of a project to ensure iDS exceeds the expectations of clients.

As a Project Manager, Ms. Fila has vast experience collaborating with clients on eDiscovery best practices, leveraging Relativity's numerous tools and functions, and potential needs for custom analytics. Additionally, she creates and maintains project documents and reports, monitors project schedules and deliverables, and facilitates communication within the project team, as well as to clients.

Ms. Fila has a Certificate of Project Management from North Carolina State University. Before joining iDS, she was a paralegal at Gilbert LLP, where she simultaneously supported multiple legal teams, managed sensitive projects, conducted factual research, and organized and maintained case files in Concordance, Relativity, TextMap, and CaseMap.
