iDS Recognized Again as a Leading eDiscovery Firm by Chambers and Partners

WASHINGTON, DC – iDiscovery Solutions, Inc. (iDS) has been recognized as a leading eDiscovery firm by Chambers and Partners, earning a prestigious Band One ranking in the Litigation Support Guide 2024: USA-Nationwide. Notably, Dan Regard, iDS' President and CEO, has achieved his seventh consecutive Band One ranking. iDS Ltd, iDS' London-based operation, attained its first Chambers and Partners ranking as well.

The Chambers and Partners Litigation Support Guide is a comprehensive resource for lawyers, general consultants, and private clients worldwide, providing expert guidance in navigating complex disputes. Firms are ranked in Bands 1-4 and individuals are ranked in Bands 1-3, with Band 1 holding the highest honor.

Reflecting on this achievement, Dan Regard notes, "I am deeply thankful for the recognition of my peers and clients. But the real honor goes to my team that continues to supply iDS with the expertise, innovation, and passion to excel."

Chambers and Partners commends iDS for innovative services in data collection, forensics, and data analysis. "iDiscovery Solutions creates innovative and creative services relating to data collections, forensics and data analysis. The firm is particularly well regarded for its expertise in structured data solutions and has crafted numerous tools to help extract key insights for clients."

As part of the ranking process, Chambers and Partners conduct client interviews to gain insight into iDS' process, capabilities, and expertise. One reference stated, "They are one of the strongest firms for bet-the-company situations. They have a very strong and deep bench of subject matter experts who understand their work's legal and technical aspects." Another highlights what their experience was like working directly with iDS CEO, Dan Regard, "Daniel impressed me with his overall acumen and ability to manage and collaborate with all stakeholders."

In a sector where managing and utilizing data is becoming increasingly important, iDS utilizes a structured process that combines legal acumen with data science – seamlessly integrating technology with state-of-the-art data analytics. This not only helps to ensure compliance, but also the firm's capability to convert vast amounts of data into actionable insights and strategic legal assets.

iDS provides consultative data solutions to corporations and law firms around the world, giving them a decisive advantage – both in and out of the courtroom. Our subject matter experts and data strategists specialize in finding solutions to complex data problems – ensuring data can be leveraged as an asset, not a liability.
