Hunter McMahon brings clarity to complexity. As Chief Operating Officer at iDiscovery Solutions (iDS), he leads teams across the globe solving data-centric challenges for corporations and law firms navigating litigation, investigations, and compliance.

Hunter has spoken to legal and corporate audiences worldwide—translating complex data into clear, strategic insights that resonate. His background as a testifying expert and head of data analytics gives him rare perspective. He's handled everything from international product liability matters to national wage and hour class actions—helping legal teams turn structured data into compelling, defensible narratives.

His approach is practical, grounded, and real. No jargon. No theory. Just clear explanations, powerful stories, and real-world strategies your audience can put to work immediately.

SPEAKING TOPICS

The Curious Lawyer

Thriving in an AI-Driven Legal Landscape

In a world where AI accelerates answers, the smartest lawyers focus on asking better questions. This session explores how curiosity—not just tech—drives better outcomes.

- Learn how curiosity turns AI from a tool into a strategic partner
- Explore techniques to build a culture of curiosity across legal teams
- Hear real cases where curiosity shaped smarter strategies and wins

The Threat of Fake Evidence

Deepfakes and the New Rules of Trust

AI has made fake evidence easy to create—and harder to detect. Chain of custody isn't enough anymore. This session explores how to verify truth in a world where seeing is no longer believing.

- Hear real cases of fake evidence—from deepfakes to doctored metadata
- Learn how to spot red flags and ask the right follow-up questions
- Adjust your discovery strategy to expose manipulation before it's too late

Let Data Tell the Story

Turning Numbers into Narrative

Data doesn't just support your case—it can drive it. This session shows how to translate raw numbers into strategic insight that shapes litigation, reveals truth, and drives client decisions.

- Learn how to build a clear, compelling story from complex data
- Understand when data is misleading—and what to do about it
- Walk through real techniques to uncover meaning and guide strategy
